TEXANS TO CELEBRATE SAN JACINTO DAY

Turning Point for Lone Star Struggle for Independence

The Texas society is planning a April 21, the anniversary of the battle of San Jacinto, in which General Sam Houston, decisively defeated a Mexican army under Santa Anna, the Mexican dictator, and forever freed Texas from the yoke of Mexico. All Texans and there are hundreds in this valley love to celebrate this holiday and to do honor to the memory of General Sam Houston and his brave band of heroes.

Many of the Texans were in hope that Hon. Gato Sells of Texas, U. S. Commissioner of Indian affairs, would be able to be present for the occasion, but a telegram to President Fred Larson recently disclosed the fact that Mr. Sells will not, owing to the pressure of official business in Washington, be able to come to Phoenix for some time.

The immediate plans are for a basket picnic. The location of the picnic has not yet been decided but will be either at Riverside Park or at the Old Camp Ground on the Brill car line. Sufficient notice to all Texans will be given of the date, and an idea of the patriotic exercises to be conducted at that time will be given also.

DECISION BY SUPREME COURT IN LIEN CASE

Because the contract in the case had been made before the enactment of the miner's lien law, the supreme court yesterday reversed and remanded the case of the Oceanic Gold Mining company vs. Albert Steinfeld, an appeal from the superior court of Pima county, with instructions to sustain general demurrer.

Action was brought by Steinfeld as assignee of the workmen to foreclose under a statutory lien for material furnished the Imperial Mines company which was at the time working the property of the Oceanic company.

Chandler News Notes

CHANDLER AT DAM CELEBRATION

Chandler was well represented at the High Water celebration at Roosevelt. R. M. Turner, of the Chandler bank, was among the list of speakers, and in his remarks paid special tribute to the work done by the reclamation service in giving water to the people, and spoke of the obligation on the part of the people to make each acre foot of water bring full return in crops.

Among those who attended from Chandler are, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Peabody, Miss Isabelle Peabody, G. H. Carlson, Ellis Morris and Wayne Heffner in the big Stevens car from the Chandler garage; Jos. R. Loftus, L. L. Davis, Oris Holden, D. B. Wyandt and Frank M. Smith in the Loftus car; Miss Harriett Dunbar, Victor Core with W. G. Spriggs and family; O. A. Miller with E. C. Rinear, R. M. and S. M. Turner and Turner and Arthur E. Price with John Anderson, and A. P. Freeman and family with F. E. Blackshire.

THE WEEK AT THE SAN MARCOS

Walter V. Woehike, treasurer and one of the principal owners of the Sunset magazine, was a visitor at the San Marcos, with A. J. Holton, of the reclamation service, on Tuesday. Mr. Woehike said he thought he had known about the Salt river valley for years, but after he had seen it, he realized that he only had faintest conception of its magnitude, beauty and agricultural possibilities. As for the San Marcos, he said that he had often been asked if there was a tourist hotel in Southern Arizona that would compare with the hotels of

A Dime--A Dollar A Stranger--A Friend

A gentleman entered a store to buy an ice cream soda. The business like air, the courteous treatment pleased him; the neat, homelike parlors with the handsome decorations, interested him, and offered a welcome shelter from the sun without; the candies attractively displayed tempted him.

A box of CACTUS CANDY for a cousin in Ohio, and a beautiful box of delicious CHOCOLATES were two happy purchases. The dainty luncheon with a CHOCOLATE SUNDAE served in the cosy booth, was a delight. A bouquet of lovely CARNATIONS for a friend who was ill and the customer reluctantly leaves, refreshed and gratified, and, with a warm place in his heart for the store at 21 East Washington Street.

He had gladly spent a dollar and more instead of a dime. The stranger had become a friend of

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SELLS BROOMS

Business Manager G. T. Peabody of the chamber of commerce has been trying to find a more extensive market for the brooms made by the Chandler Broom Factory, and as a starter sold sixty dozen brooms in Phoenix this last week. Mr. Peabody said that the prices paid would return a satisfactory profit to farmers. Up until now the Chandler Broom factory has been operated by Messrs. Griggs and McNamara for the local Farmers' Union. Until the next crop of broom corn is brought in, they will operate it for their own account.

COMMISSION CO. MOVES

The Chandler Commission company are fitting up the store building in the Jacobson building formerly occupied by the chamber of commerce for their own purposes and will move there from their present quarters on Boston street within a few days. They have sold their old quarters to the Chandler Bakery, who will use it for a store room and other purposes. The chamber of commerce will hereafter have its home on Commonwealth avenue in the San Marcos building.

W. O. W. ORGANIZE

A local lodge of the Woodmen of the World was organized on Wednesday by L. M. Stewart, of Phoenix and J. W. Paterson of Glendale, with Thos. W. Nelson, Albert Layhe and E. Anderson of Phoenix assisting in the work. There were fourteen charter members. The following officers were elected: F. L. Shirey, commander; W. E. Chirey, counsel; C. M.
